From the Editor

Happy Fall! October is the perfect time to see the fall foliage when you come to the Fall Weekend at the Nevele Grand Resort and Country Club in the Catskills; great scenery, great music, and even great food. Time is getting close, send in your reservations now!

This month also brings us the Sea Music Concert, the Folk Open Sing, Sacred Harp Sing, and Chantey Sing. Don't forget to bring your scary songs to the Halloween Singing Party!

November brings us the Eisteddfod; a very special event with workshops and concerts by some of the finest traditional musicians and singers. You have an opportunity to benefit the festival and win a beautiful plate made by Ann Shunior with designs by Howard Glasser. You can buy the raffle tickets in advance—see below for more information.

Thank you to the volunteers who help to put out the newsletter each month and ensure that you get the word about what's going on in the club and at events throughout the city. They could always use more help. For the September newsletter thank you to: Isabel Goldstein, Fran Levine, Brenda Pena, Eileen Pentel, Marcus Tieman, and Don Wade who also picked up the pages from the printer. Also thanks to Don, Eileen, and William Wade-Pentel for hosting the mailing. Won't you join us and help mail out the next newsletter on Thursday, November 2? (See page 3.)

The Folk Process

by Ruth Lipman

JOANNE DAVIS (JANKOWITZ) is presently at New York Presbyterian Hospital where she is recovering from multiple surgeries. Joanne says that the prophecy she expressed in one of her songs is coming true; she's moving towards stages two and three of "The D.P.R. Blues":

"Past the age of decoration
Working hard at preservation
Soon I'll get to restoration blues."

We all hope that she'll soon be restored to complete good health!

In early September, the members of Blind Boneless Chicken (Toby Fagenson, Ron Schwartz, John Austin and Gary Ardan) had a reunion at which there was much more than a poultry (oops, paltry) amount of informal jamming.

If you have news to share, please contact me at 372 Central Park West, #15B, New York, NY 10025; 212-663-6309
